DETROIT BASICS

Metro Detroit is impressive in size — covering nearly 2,000 square miles. That means there are a ton of things to do and see no matter your interests or tastes. Here are some basic need-to-knows for while you're with us.

Average Driving Distance to Downtown (in miles)

Metro Detroit is composed of three counties: Macomb, Oakland and Wayne. To make planning easier, the metro area is split into five destination districts: Dearborn/Wayne, Downtown Detroit, Greater Novi, Macomb and Oakland.

AVERAGE TEMPS (°F)

IT'S NOT HEAT IN DETROIT,
IT'S HUMIDITY.

You can expect pretty much every type of weather — rain, sun, snow, sleet or hail — on any given day. We have all four seasons here, which makes for great variety.

Record High Temperature

105° F/40.5° C in July 1934

Record Low Temperature

-24° F/-31° C in December, 1872

Average Snowfall

41.1 inches/102.75 centimeters

Average Wind

10.4 mph/16.64 kph

WE'RE THE MITTEN STATE

Ask any Detroiter where they're from, and they'll point to the bottom of their palm.

AREA CODES

248, 313, 586, 734, 810

EASTERN TIME ZONE

FOUNDED

July 24, 1701

CITY POPULATION

677,116

(U.S. Census Bureau 2015)

METROPOLITAN AREA POPULATION

3,866,479

(U.S. Census Bureau 2015)

ALTITUDE

581 feet (177 meters),

measured at the Detroit River

TOURISM NUMBERS

DID YOU KNOW?

It is estimated that a new idea for a startup is generated in Detroit every 27 minutes.

Michigan Economic Development Corporation

The Detroit-Dearborn-Livonia metropolitan area ranks No. 1 among the country's 70 largest metropolitan areas for manufacturing employment growth.

Forbes

The Detroit area boasts the second largest concentration of engineers among the country's 85 largest metro areas, behind only Silicon Valley.

Forbes

The Detroit Garment Group fashion incubator allows Michigan-based designers at high-skill levels to create collections. The incubator hosts up to 10 designers at a time, for a one- to two-year period.

Detroit Bikes was the chosen manufacturer for an order of 2,500 custom cruiser bicycles for the Colorado-based New Belgium Brewing Company. The cruiser looks similar to the bike on the label of the brewer's popular Fat Tire Amber Ale.

Downtown Detroit has several newer breweries making distinct beers on-site, including Jolly Pumpkin, HopCat, Brew Detroit and Batch Brewing Company. They join veteran downtown breweries such as Motor City Brewing Works and Atwater.

NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN THE D.

The Detroit area continues to experience a boon of new business, agricultural initiatives and large-scale city improvement plans. Concentrated areas of startups, independent retailers, fine food establishments, big brand-name stores and entertainment options continue to surface, move forward and make headlines in Detroit, further proving the city is America's great comeback story.

EMERGENCE OF MAKERS AND MANUFACTURERS

Detroit may be best known as an automotive manufacturing town, but the influx of makers, high-tech innovators and manufacturers attracted to the city and planting permanent roots here are wide ranging. Detroit's growing portfolio of creatives is diverse, from luxury bicycle and craft beer makers to online retail giants, app developers, a burgeoning cut-and-sew industry and varied artists of poetry and paint.

- Detroit's first-ever Garment District is being created in partnership between Detroit Garment Group and Midtown Detroit Inc. The two have 27 Michigan-based companies eager to come together and locate within the garment district in Detroit.
- In just three years, Detroit-based Shinola has become an internationally respected brand for manufacturing quality luxury goods, including bicycles and watches. Shinola is currently planning to open a cafe and production space as part of a larger redevelopment spearheaded by Midtown Detroit Inc.
- In 2015, online retailer Amazon announced its new corporate office and tech hub would be located in downtown Detroit. A new multimillion-dollar Amazon distribution center is set to open in the Detroit suburb of Livonia in fall 2017.
- The $148 million lightweight metals manufacturing institute announced by former President Barack Obama is located in the city of Detroit.
- Microsoft is moving its Michigan Technology Center to downtown Detroit in early 2018.

- Between 2007 and 2016, TechTown, Detroit's business innovation hub, has served more than 1,800 companies, created nearly 1,300 jobs and has leveraged more than $120 million in start-up capital.
- The Venture for America fellowship program has a small colony of recent college grads in Detroit building small businesses, including Loveland Technologies, which creates databases and mobile app services that help catalog properties and their condition for government entities, developers and neighborhood groups.
- Detroit Venture Partners backs seed and early-stage startup teams in the city. It has worked actively to support the growth of the M@dison Block (now 70 startups and growing), Detroit's downtown tech ecosystem.
- Alternative energy-based businesses continue to populate the region, including the downtown-based Nextek Power Systems and Inventev, which was recently awarded a $500,000 grant from the U.S. Department of Energy to develop components of a hybrid electric drive system.
- Now in its sixth year, Hatch Detroit, a champion for independents and entrepreneurs in the city, has expanded its retail role into six neighborhoods. Since 2011, 14 Hatch alumni businesses have opened up storefronts in varying categories.
- The Detroit Creative Corridor Center (DC3) delivers programming to help creative entrepreneurs and enterprises grow revenue, acquire clients and build organizational capacity. Since 2011, DC3 has helped 45 early stage creative ventures grow and succeed in Detroit. To date, these firms employ approximately 100 employees; reported $2.7 million in revenues; and absorbed 17,000 square feet of vacant studio space.

GREENING OF THE INFRASTRUCTURE

Detroit is positioning itself as a worldwide center for urban innovation as thousands of lots and vacant spaces in the city are being repurposed — some as parks and recreational spaces, others for agricultural production — and some are even being reforested with healthy trees. Community and urban gardens continue to sprout in schoolyards, parks and on city corners and private lots, providing a unique inner-city network for farm-to-table healthy foods. Working together, all of these managed green spaces are improving the community's social, economic and environmental health.

- The city of Detroit is teamed up with the nonprofit Greening of Detroit to plant tens of thousands of trees and clean up target districts in Detroit. Each year, Greening Detroit recruits up to 5,000 volunteers to help plant, clean and work farm and gardens.
- D-Town Farm covers seven acres in the city of Detroit's Rouge Park. More than 30 different crops are grown on the farm, with produce sold to local restaurants and residents June through October.
- Green Garage is an incubator and business hub encouraging and supporting startups that are environmentally friendly and socially conscious. Nearly 50 businesses are housed in Green Garage's renovated warehouse that uses almost zero energy.
- FoodLab is a diverse group of locally owned food businesses — caterers, bakers, picklers, distributors, corner stores, cafes — that are taking active steps together toward a more green food economy in Detroit.
- Eastern Market completed a $8.5 million renovation of its Shed 5 in 2015, which includes a new food incubator and rentable test kitchen so wanna-be chefs and restaurateurs can transform the market's local produce into culinary creations on-site. Eastern Market is also home to the 2.5-acre Detroit Market garden, which supports farm apprentice programs, and provides produce to local restaurants and food banks.
- Lafayette Greens is a raised-bed organic garden located in the heart of downtown Detroit that has an heirloom apple orchard, flowers and a variety of produce.

DID YOU KNOW?

Detroit's community gardens produce 200 tons of fresh fruits and vegetables per year.

Forbes

The number of urban gardens in Detroit has grown from fewer than 100 to more than 1,400 since 2000.

*Environmental Protection Agency,
Office of Sustainable Communities*

The Dequindre Cut Greenway, an urban recreational path, was recently expanded. The extension now makes the greenway nearly two miles and connects to more than 2 miles of bike lanes/greenways.

The process of connecting the Detroit International RiverWalk from Stroh River Place to Chene Park East is underway and set for completion in fall 2017. The Riverwalk replaces decades of industrial use with a recreational promenade.

Detroit's Eastern Market now offers market days midweek during growing seasons to increase the availability of fresh produce to city residents.

Since 2014, the Hantz Woodland project has planted more than 20,000 trees and cleaned up nearly 2,000 vacant lots.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 2017, the Michigan Restaurant Association released the industry's forecast for the year and estimated that statewide projected restaurant sales for the year would total $15.9 billion versus $15.4 billion in 2016.

Corktown is Detroit's oldest neighborhood. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is also designated as a city of Detroit historic district.

Midtown hosts 2 million visitors annually.
midtowndetroitinc.org

Midtown is home to 80 restaurants, 13 theaters, 12 galleries, 8 museums, 2 historic inns, 2 hardware stores, 2 radio stations, 2 dry cleaners, and a symphony orchestra — all within a few square miles, much of it walkable.

midtowndetroitinc.org

More than 806,554 people attended the North American International Auto Show (NAIAS) at Cobo Center in 2017.

The glass-enclosed concourse area, three-story glass atrium and third-floor corridor glass ceiling of Cobo Center provide enough natural light during the daytime hours to minimize using daytime lighting.

Suburban Collection Showplace is the home of Michigan's annual State Fair.

SURGING NEIGHBORHOODS

Downtown is joined by other concentrated areas such as Midtown and Corktown as some of the fastest developing neighborhoods of Detroit. All feature an abundance of new restaurants, galleries, community gardens and markets.

- In 2016, retail giant Nike opened a two-story, 22,000-square-foot store in downtown Detroit on Woodward Ave. Under Armour soon followed, opening up its downtown Detroit store in April 2017.
- Detroit Medical Center's $8.2 million Midtown Marketplace brings 150 new jobs to Midtown with Detroiters filling about 80 percent of the positions.
- The site of Old Tiger Stadium is under transformation, with the Detroit Police Athletic League headquarters and The Corner — a combination of apartments, townhouses and retail space — being built on the grounds. The project is scheduled for completion in 2017.
- In the downtown enclave once known as Harmonie Park, a new jazz club, boutique hotel, art galleries and the headquarters of the Michigan Chronicle newspaper are all planned as part of the revitalized Paradise Valley Cultural and Entertainment District.
- A $5 million project along Detroit's Avenue of Fashion is underway and set to include retail stores, restaurants and about a dozen apartments. Businesses start opening in 2017.
- The Sugar Hill Arts District is a developing project in Midtown, which includes the centerpiece N'Namdi Center for Contemporary Art and 71 Garfield, a mixed-use space and haven for artists and creatives to live and work.

MEETING PLACES GROW

In 2015 after a $279 million renovation, Cobo Center in downtown Detroit features 723,000 square feet of exhibit hall space and 623,000 square feet of contiguous exhibit space. Another world-class convention center, Suburban Collection Showplace, is located in the metro Detroit region. It added an adjoining Hyatt Place hotel in 2013 and recently announced another expansion that will add thousands more square feet of meeting space by spring of 2018.

Cobo Center:

- A 40,000-square-foot Grand Riverview Ballroom, which can accommodate 3,500 theater-style or 2,250 for banquets.
- The 50,000-square-foot Cobo Square exterior plaza and vehicle drop-off area for activities ranging from music and art events to a possible downtown farmers market.
- A glass-enclosed events space with floor-to-ceiling views of the Detroit River and Windsor, Ontario, skyline.
- An atrium that can host up to 1,200 people standing
- 100 meeting rooms
- In-house broadcast studio with video editing, sound stage, green room and satellite uplink.
- Free high-speed Wi-Fi throughout the building

Suburban Collection Showplace:

- 320,000 square feet of meeting space
- Additional 200,000 square feet of flexible event space being added by spring 2018
- Adjoining Hyatt Place hotel opened in 2013 with 124 guest rooms
- 32 meeting rooms
- 25,000 square feet of pre-function lobby space
- 214,000 square feet of multipurpose exhibit floor

SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

Detroit and its surrounding area has seen a significant uptick in the number of new signature sports and entertainment destinations dotting its landscape.

- The new Little Caesars Arena and The Detroit District will encompass 50 blocks of thriving businesses, parks, restaurants, bars and event destinations. It will connect downtown and Midtown into one contiguous, walkable area. The cornerstone is the arena, the new home of the Detroit Red Wings and Detroit Pistons, which is set to open this fall.
- The Polk Penguin Conservation Center is the new $29.5 million, 33,000-square-foot home to the penguin colonies at the Detroit Zoo.
- In fall 2017, Round 1 Bowling and Amusement Center will join Legoland Discovery Center and Michigan Sea Life Aquarium in Great Lakes Crossing Outlets in Auburn Hills.
- The new Jimmy John's Field in Utica is home to the United Shore Professional Baseball League, metro Detroit's first independent professional baseball league. The stadium seats about 4,000 and hosts about 75 games per season. It was recently announced that a fourth team will be added for the 2017 season.

NEW FORMS OF PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Detroit is known for its efficient road system and how well it caters to travel via an automobile. Downtown proper expanded its public transportation infrastructure, adding a 3.3-mile circulating streetcar called the QLine this spring. This $140 million streetcar complements the elevated and automated light-rail system already running downtown called the Detroit People Mover.

The QLine:

- Runs for 3.3 miles along Woodward Avenue between Congress Street and West Grand Boulevard
- Headways ranging from 8 to 12 minutes
- Has 20 stations serving 12 stops

The Detroit People Mover:

- Runs on a 2.9-mile looped and elevated system
- Loop can be completed in approximately 15 minutes
- Has 13 stations at key downtown locations, including Cobo Center, GM Renaissance Center and Greektown

DID YOU KNOW?

The Detroit Red Wings have made it to the playoffs 25 consecutive years (1991-2016), the longest active playoff streak in pro sports.

Sea Life Michigan Aquarium features more than 5,000 sea creatures.

Legoland Discovery Center Michigan has a Miniland exhibit featuring iconic Detroit structures made with more than 1.5 million Lego bricks.

The Detroit Zoo's new Polk Penguin Conservation Center is the largest penguin facility in the world.

Detroit has more than 170 miles of bike lanes and greenways.

The Detroit People Mover stations feature more than $2 million in mixed media and artistic expression.

The Detroit Marriott at the Renaissance Center is one of the tallest hotels in the Western Hemisphere.

The David Whitney building, home to Michigan's first Aloft hotel, is one of only three surviving buildings in Detroit by the renowned architectural firm of Daniel H. Burnham & Co. Burnham is considered one of the most important American architects of all time.

The Top of the Pontch restaurant at the Crowne Plaza Detroit Downtown Riverfront Hotel offers one of the best aerial views of the Detroit/Windsor, Ontario skyline.

Trumbull and Porter Hotel

MICHELLE GERARD

NEW AND REIMAGINED HOTELS

Metro Detroit currently has approximately 36,000 available hotel rooms that are competitively priced and full of amenities. Around 5,000 of these hotel rooms are downtown.

Aloft Detroit at the David Whitney

The iconic David Whitney building rises to a new occasion as floors one through nine are repurposed for the Aloft Detroit. Elegant and modern with 136 guest rooms and plentiful meeting space.

Detroit Marriott at the Renaissance Center

A $30 million renovation transformed this 70-floor hotel. Guest rooms number 1,246 with 52 suites. Offers 100,000 square feet of event space.

Detroit's Wurlitzer Building

The historic 14-story Wurlitzer Building is being transformed into a 100-room hotel, opening in 2018. The downtown structure, built in 1926, is receiving a $20 million makeover.

The District Detroit Hotel - Opening date and official name TBD

Located at Woodward Avenue and I-75, plans are in the works for a 350-room hotel is part of the larger The District Detroit project. Near the Little Caesars Arena, the new home to the Detroit Red Wings and Detroit Pistons. Planned opening in 2019.

Element Detroit

Opening July 2018, this 110-room hotel will take over Detroit's long-vacant Metropolitan Building as part of Starwood Hotels & Resorts Worldwide's Element Hotels brand.

Foundation Hotel

Once the historic Detroit Fire Department headquarters, this 100-room independent hotel opens this year. Guest will enjoy an authentic Detroit experience thanks to a unique partnership with two-starred Michelin chef Thomas Lents and local distillers, brewers, farmers and other edible sundry purveyors.

Hyatt Place Detroit Novi

Attached to the Suburban Collection Showplace in Novi. This hotel has 124 rooms and two suites. An expansion at Suburban Collection Showplace adds another 200,000 square feet of meeting space to the complex in spring 2018.

Shinola Hotel

Expected to open in late 2018, this downtown boutique hotel was once an early 20th century retail building. The hotel will offer 130 rooms on floors two through eight, along with a mix of retail and dining on the first floor as well as available meeting space.

Trumbull & Porter

This hip hotel is a short distance from historic Corktown's restaurants, shops and clubs, and just minutes from Comerica Park, Ford Field, Cobo Center, Greektown and many more Detroit landmarks.

West Elm Hotel

Furniture and home décor retailer West Elm will open the West Elm Hotel in Detroit's Midtown in 2018. The 120-room boutique hotel and West Elm store is part of a larger development that will include housing and additional retail space.

DETROIT ANEW.

New is a word familiar in the city.

New high-tech startups, creative incubators, conference spaces, restaurants, entertainment districts, retailers, world-class hotels and a sports arena. Plus, a new light-rail public transportation system along the city’s main artery, Woodward Avenue. All these new things — and more keep coming — are signs that Detroit is America’s great comeback city. In fact, Detroit is now soaring far beyond the word comeback. It’s unequivocally an IT city, one poised for continued success and one ready to play the perfect host.

EPICENTER FOR ENTREPRENEURSHIP

New tech and creative incubators continue to build buzz and business in Detroit. Initiatives such as Hatch, TechTown and Detroit Creative Corridor are nurturing hundreds of small-to-medium creative ventures and independent startups, helping draw in and employ thousands of young, highly skilled individuals in the city.

FACTORY FOR FINE FOODS

Detroit was named one of six "Unexpected Cities for the Food Lover" by National Geographic in 2017, claiming the title for North America. It's a city being heralded as an up-and-coming food epicenter, open and accessible with a diverse collection of new eateries and watering holes — from gastro pubs and distilleries to French bistros and burger bars, many featuring locally grown ingredients on their menus.

MECCA FOR MUSIC

Detroit is a musical mecca; the undisputed owner of the Motown sound and the place where techno beats first erupted. A host of world-recognized musical festivals and events take place every year, too, attracting celebrated artists from a variety of genres.

AN INTERNATIONAL DESTINATION

Metro Detroit is impressive in size — covering nearly 2,000 square miles — and serves as a major port connecting the Great Lakes to the Saint Lawrence Seaway. It is an international destination, sharing a border with Windsor, Ontario, Canada.

MADE IN THE D.

Sure, metro Detroit is the Motor City, thanks to Henry Ford and his pioneering ways. But the area is known for more than just the cars it helps produce. In fact, many people put items in their grocery store shopping carts that have been made in Detroit, including beverages, chips and bread mixes.

- Better Made potato chips
- Detroit Bikes
- Detroit Denim
- Detroit Surf Co.
- Domino's Pizza
- Elan candy
- Faygo beverages
- The Floyd Leg
- Garden Fresh Gourmet salsas, dips and chips
- Germack Pistachio Company
- The HoneyBaked Ham Company
- Jiffy bread and cake mixes
- Kowalski sausages
- Little Caesars Pizza
- Morley candy
- The Original Zip Sauce
- Rebel Nell
- Red Pelican mustard
- Sanders candy and ice cream topping
- Shedd's spread
- Stroh's beer
- Towne Club soda
- Velvet Peanut Butter
- Vernors ginger ale
- Vlasic foods

OTHER GREAT MADE-IN-THE-D INNOVATIONS:

- Carhartt work clothing
- Dardevle fishing lures
- Duraliner truck beds
- The Fathead brand, based in downtown Detroit
- Lionel trains
- Shinola watches, bikes, leather goods

FAST FACTS

From its earliest days to now, The D has made an impact not only on the nation but also the world. Although it's probably best known for putting the world on wheels, it can also boast a large number of other notable — and global — contributions, from being home to the first urban highway to having been the first city to have assigned personal phone numbers.

WHY DETROIT IS THE MOTOR CITY

- Headquarters for Fiat Chrysler Automobiles, Ford and General Motors and hundreds of tier-one and -two suppliers.
- Home of the North American International Auto Show, with more than 500 vehicles on display representing more than 50 worldwide companies.
- Henry Ford built his first car in Detroit in 1896.
- The world's first concrete road was built in Detroit in 1901.
- Henry Ford introduced an improved assembly line in 1913, revolutionizing the automotive industry and the manufacturing process in general.
- Home to the Ford Piquette Avenue Plant — birthplace of the Model T — the only example of an early Detroit auto factory still open to visitors.
- Home to the historic dwellings of auto barons, including Henry and Clara Ford (Fair Lane Estate), Lawrence Fisher (Fisher Mansion), Edsel and Eleanor Ford (Edsel & Eleanor Ford House) and Matilda Dodge Wilson (Meadow Brook Hall).
- Home of the world's largest tire — 12 tons and 80 feet tall — originally built as a Ferris wheel for the 1964 New York World's Fair.

WHY DETROIT INSPIRES

- Known for one of the richest collections of late 19th-century, ethnic-based churches in the country.
- Belle Isle, the nation's largest island park within a city, was designed by Frederick Law Olmsted, landscape architect of New York's Central Park.
- The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. debuted his 1963 I Have a Dream speech at Cobo Center in Detroit two months before its famous delivery in Washington, D.C.
- The Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History is the largest museum in the world dedicated to the African-American experience.
- The Arab American National Museum is the first and only museum in the world dedicated to Arab-American history and culture.
- The Detroit Institute of Arts' collection is among the top six in the United States.

WHY DETROIT ROCKS

- Home to the Motown sound founded by Berry Gordy Jr. in 1957.
- Birthplace of techno music and Movement Electronic Music Festival.
- Host of the Detroit Jazz Festival, the largest free jazz festival in the world.
- Has one of the largest theater districts in the country — more than 13,000 theater seats — and attracts major Broadway productions, headline entertainers, opera, dance, symphony and other performing artists.
- Hometown of more than 50 major entertainment, literary and sport figures — from boxer Joe Louis and actor Tim Allen to singer Aretha Franklin and pilot Charles Lindbergh.
- Birthplace of such rock, hip-hop and pop stars/icons as Diana Ross, Madonna, Eminem, Kid Rock, Alice Cooper, Ted Nugent, Bob Seger, and Jack and Meg White of The White Stripes.
- Sports stadiums double as concert halls — Comerica Park alone has attracted major artists from Paul McCartney and The Rolling Stones to Bruce Springsteen, Taylor Swift and Rihanna.

WHY DETROIT IS A SPORTS FAN'S DREAM

- The Detroit Tigers (baseball), Detroit Lions (football) Detroit Red Wings (hockey) and Detroit Pistons (basketball) all play within walking distance of each other in their downtown stadiums.
- The Detroit Tigers won the American League Central Division champions four consecutive years — 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014.
- We are Hockeytown USA, home to the Detroit Red Wings, who have 11 Stanley Cup wins, third highest in the NHL.
- The Detroit Red Wings have made the Stanley Cup playoffs for 25 consecutive years (1991-2016), the longest active playoff streak in pro sports.
- Home to Garden Bowl, America's oldest active bowling center.
- Cadieux Café is one of the only places in North America where you can feather bowl.
- If you believe poker is a sport: home of three downtown casino complexes — Greektown Casino-Hotel, MGM Grand Detroit and MotorCity Casino Hotel.
- On Monday nights, you can join hundreds of bikers for Slow Roll, a 12- to 15-mile group bike ride and social experience.
- The Chevrolet Detroit Belle Isle Grand Prix kicks off a summer series of car cruises, races and shows in southeast Michigan called Autopalooza.

- Lake St. Clair was voted 2013's Best Bass Fishing Lake by Bassmaster magazine.
- The APBA Gold Cup hydroplane boat race on the Detroit River is a competition to win the oldest active trophy in motor sports.

WHY DETROIT HAS BRAGGING RIGHTS

- Detroit is actually north of Canada and shares an international waterway with Windsor, Ontario.
- Vernors, created by Detroit pharmacist James Vernor in the 1860s, is one of the nation's oldest soda pops still in production.
- In 1879, Detroit became the first city in the nation to assign individual telephone numbers.
- The world's first convention and visitors bureau — the Detroit Metro Convention & Visitors Bureau — was founded in 1896.
- The world's first auto traffic tunnel between two nations — the Detroit-Windsor Tunnel — opened in 1928 below the Detroit River.

- Joe Louis Barrow — The Brown Bomber and the world's heavyweight boxing champion in 1937 — was a native Detroiter.
- The nation's first shopping mall, Northland Mall, opened in the Detroit suburb of Southfield in 1957.
- When the Marriott at the Renaissance Center opened in 1977, it was the tallest hotel in the world.

EXPLORE DETROIT

Metro Detroit is a large melting pot of ethnicities, activities, industries and lifestyles. A hub of cars, culture, gaming, music and sports. The area is physically massive, too — covering nearly 2,000 square miles.

To make planning easier, the metro area is split into five destination districts to help visitors navigate downtown Detroit and the city's surrounding counties and suburbs.

DIVERSE. HISTORIC. URBAN COMFORT.

Metro Detroit's Dearborn/Wayne District is down-home historic. Here, The Henry Ford, one of America's greatest history attractions, invites all to peruse more than 26 million artifacts that personify the American experience — the Model T and the assembly line, the Rosa Parks bus, President Kennedy's limo and so much more.

Ford Motor Company claims this area as its headquarters, and college kids populate it as well, thanks to the Dearborn-based campus of the University of Michigan. Shoppers will find Michigan's only Ikea store in this district. Plus, a full array of ethnic communities — from Arab-American and Mexican to Italian and Polish — give Dearborn/Wayne tons of character and options when it comes to exploring dining, entertainment, cultural destinations and nightlife.

Historical Attractions & Museum Highlights

ARAB AMERICAN NATIONAL MUSEUM

The Arab American National Museum is the first museum in the United States dedicated to telling the story and highlighting the contributions of Arab-Americans.

AUTOMOTIVE HALL OF FAME

Learn about the pioneers and leaders of the global motor vehicle industry. The Automotive Hall of Fame preserves the history of mobility by celebrating the creativity, toil and genius of the individual.

THE HENRY FORD

See JFK’s limo, Rosa Parks’ bus and thousands of uniquely American innovations in Henry Ford Museum; 83 historic buildings, artisans and presenters in Greenfield Village; and watch the Ford F-150 being assembled on the Ford Rouge Factory Tour.

HISTORIC FORT WAYNE

This Civil War-era fort is opened to the public on special occasions and during the annual celebration of Detroit’s birthday.

TUSKEGEE AIRMEN NATIONAL HISTORICAL MUSEUM

A place dedicated to telling the heroic stories of the determined young men who enlisted to become America’s first black military airmen.

Shopping & Walkable Downtown Highlights

CITY OF WYANDOTTE

The city of Wyandotte, 12 miles south of Detroit, has a beautiful, lively downtown with art galleries, eateries, shopping and waterfront parks.

FAIRLANE TOWN CENTER

Fairlane Town Center is one of Michigan’s largest shopping centers, with more than 140 unique stores, restaurants and national retailers. It’s anchored by Macy’s, Sears and JCPenney and boasts Michigan’s largest H&M.

THE GLASS ACADEMY

A working artist studio that specializes in the glass arts, selling both functional and sculptural glasswork while offering a unique venue for entertaining and special events.

CITY OF BELLEVILLE

The downtown streets of Belleville play host to fun-filled events on more than 200 days each year. Shop for handcrafted goods, admire outdoor sculptures and dine along the shores of beautiful Belleville Lake.

Arts & Entertainment Highlights

DEARBORN’S FORD COMMUNITY & PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

One of America’s most versatile gathering places with facilities for a variety of athletics, meeting & event space, and a cultural center offering theater, art, music and dance.

DETROIT REPERTORY THEATRE

This intimate theater is known for its race-transcendent casting and performances.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Manufacturing Innovation Theater, part of The Henry Ford’s Ford Rouge Factory Tour, received a 2016 Thea Award for outstanding achievement for a brand experience from the Themed Entertainment Association. The Thea is one of the attraction industry’s greatest honors.

Well-known industrial architect Albert Kahn designed The Dearborn Inn, which was one of the nation’s first airport hotels in the 1930s.

The Islamic Center of America in Dearborn is the oldest Shia mosque in the United States.

Dearborn has one of the largest Arabic communities outside of the Middle East.

Ford Motor Company’s world headquarters is located in Dearborn.

Dearborn serves as the international headquarters for apparel company Carhartt as well as Eppinger Manufacturing, maker of Dardevle fishing lures.

Walt Disney used Henry Ford’s Greenfield Village in Dearborn as a model when creating Disneyland.

The Ikea in Canton is the Swedish retailer’s only Michigan store.

COSMOPOLITAN. INDUSTRIOUS. FRESH.

Clockwise from left:
Greektown; Shinola;
Campus Martius Park

Downtown Detroit is an international crossing that mixes things historic and legendary with elements modern and contemporary. A thriving, walkable international riverfront includes water fountains, butterfly gardens and a working carousel. Architecture from Albert Kahn and Isamu Noguchi lives next to all-night joints selling loaded Coney dogs and Prohibition-born speakeasies pouring locally crafted beer. Three Vegas-style casinos run 24/7. Must-see museums celebrate art, music, maritime and African-American history. Urban parks and friendly neighborhoods abound. Classic theaters, a bustling cultural district and hip hangouts entertain, and three sports stadiums rock.

Towns within Downtown

Detroit in and of itself has many concentrated areas:

GREEKTOWN

Grape leaves, flaming cheese (Opa!) and eggplant-layered moussaka; bakeries overflowing with baklava, sweet egg bread and tortes of all sorts.

MIDTOWN

Boasts unique art galleries, quirky independent retail shops and some of the best don't-want-to-miss cuisine you'll find in the city. Home to more than 80 restaurants, 13 theaters, 12 galleries, 8 museums, 2 historic inns and a symphony orchestra – all within a few square miles.

MEXICANTOWN

The service is always fast, and the food is always phenomenal. Order the botana (the guacamole is out of this world, fresh, creamy and begs you to double dip your chip).

CORKTOWN

Lots to do with tons of really cool hangouts and friendly pubs, Irish and otherwise. One infamous restaurant serves up barbecue paradise. The Yardbird (mustard sauce-soaked pulled chicken breast tossed with mushrooms, cheddar and topped with bacon) was a top contender in the Travel Channel's hunt for the best sandwiches in America.

HAMTRAMCK

This Polish enclave is full of good ethnic eats – think pierogies, paczki (super-dense, jelly-filled doughnuts), kielbasa, kraut and dill pickle soup. Just as rich is the music scene, where little hole-in-the-wall bars host live acts weekly.

Historical Attractions & Museum Highlights

CHARLES H. WRIGHT MUSEUM OF AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY

The world's largest institution dedicated to the African-American experience.

DETROIT HISTORICAL MUSEUM

A history showcase of southeastern Michigan. Includes the visitor-favorite Streets of Old Detroit and the Kid Rock Music Lab.

DETROIT INSTITUTE OF ARTS

Among the top 10 museums in the country, offering more than 100 galleries with art from ancient to modern times. See Diego Rivera's Detroit Industry murals.

DOSSIN GREAT LAKES MUSEUM

Located on Strand Drive on Belle Isle, the museum's focus is Great Lakes shipping and maritime history.

FORD PIQUETTE AVENUE PLANT/ MODEL T AUTOMOTIVE HERITAGE COMPLEX

The birthplace of the Model T – the most significant automobile of the 20th century. Come walk the floors where the first 12,000 Model T's were assembled.

MOTOWN MUSEUM

Long known as Hitsville USA, the museum is home of the world-famous Studio A, where The Temptations, Marvin Gaye and countless others recorded with the Funk Brothers.

DID YOU KNOW?

36,000 AND COUNTING

With some 36,000 available hotel rooms, metro Detroit has a selection of accommodation options that can cover every need and price point. Major and trusted brands in the area's five destination districts include Hilton, Holiday Inn, Marriott, Sheraton and Westin.

DEARBORN/ WAYNE

Many of the hotels in this district are within approximately a 10-mile radius of Detroit Metro Airport.

MAKE SURE YOU CONSIDER

The Dearborn Inn

Designed by the well-known industrial architect Albert Kahn this Marriott Hotel was one of the nation's first airport hotels in the 1930s. Today, the 23-acre retreat also features reproduction homes of the famous Walt Whitman and Edgar Allan Poe.

The Westin Hotel

Detroit Metropolitan Airport was named the Best Airport Hotel by Michigan Meetings + Events for 2015.

The Henry, Autograph Collection

The winner of Trip Advisor's Certificate of Excellence in 2014.

DOWNTOWN DETROIT

There are 5,000 available rooms in Detroit's prime downtown real estate.

MAKE SURE YOU CONSIDER

Crowne Plaza - Detroit Downtown Riverfront

Located across the street from Cobo Center, this upscale property is a 25-story, 367-room hotel.

Detroit Marriott at the Renaissance Center

One of the tallest hotels in the Western Hemisphere, with nearly 1,246 guest rooms.

MGM Grand Detroit, Greektown Casino-Hotel, MotorCity Casino Hotel

Detroit's three full-service casino hotels are all within a mile or less of Cobo Center and have a combined 1,200 rooms.

The Westin Book Cadillac Detroit

Legendary, restored and on the National Register of Historic Places. Rooms average 475 square feet.

GREATER NOVI

The Suburban Collection Showplace exhibition facility is at this district's epicenter, and a population of 30 or so hotels is within a 12-mile radius.

MAKE SURE YOU CONSIDER

Hyatt Place Detroit/Novi

Attached to the Suburban Collection Showplace includes 9,260 square feet of its own meeting space. A planned expansion scheduled to be complete in spring 2018 will add another 200,000 square feet to the convention center.

The Inn at St. John's

Was named the Best Hotel with Meeting/Event Space (fewer than 200 guests rooms) by Michigan Meetings + Events for 2016.

The Baronette Renaissance Detroit-Novi

One of the area's top hotels, with a Michigan lake retreat-like atmosphere.

For more information and a complete listing of places to stay, go to visitdetroit.com.

HOW TO GET HERE AND THERE

With one of the world's busiest air transportation hubs, Detroit offers nonstop flights to 150 destinations in the world. And when talking about what's happening once on the ground, the area — we are called the Motor City, by the way — is known for having one of the most efficient road systems around.

METRO DETROIT

Flying into Detroit is a snap. Once you're on the ground, it's a new ball game. Flat out, you need a car if you want to get around town.

HIGHWAYS AND BYWAYS

To make the translation between names and numbers, here's a quick primer:

- I-75, aka the Fisher Freeway, as well as the Chrysler Freeway.
- I-94 is the Ford Freeway for a stretch.
- I-96 is also known as the Jeffries Freeway and Rosa Parks Memorial Highway.
- I-696 is the Walter P. Reuther Freeway.
- I-375 is a mile long and has no name.
- M-1 is Woodward Avenue.
- M-10 is also known as the Lodge Freeway.
- M-39 is known as the Southfield Freeway.

A good rule of thumb when speaking to native Detroiters is to use the interstate numbers and the names for state or U.S. highways. For example, we say I-75, not the Fisher. Hop on the Lodge or the Southfield, not M-10 or M-39.

THE MILE ROADS

Metro Detroit's mile roads run east and west and are approximately a mile north or south of one another. Some of them change names throughout the area.

The fickle mile roads that change names:

- 5 Mile / Fenkell east of Telegraph
- 6 Mile / McNichols east of Telegraph
- 7 Mile / Moross east of Kelly
- 8 Mile / Baseline west of I-275 and Vernier east of Kelly
- 10 Mile / I-696 service drive west of I-75
- 11 Mile / I-696 service drive east of Dequindre
- 15 Mile / Maple west of Dequindre
- 16 Mile / Metropolitan Parkway, Big Beaver west of Dequindre and Quarton west of Woodward
- 17 Mile / Wattles west of Dequindre
- 18 Mile / Long Lake west of Dequindre
- 19 Mile / Square Lake Road west of Dequindre
- 20 Mile / M-59, Hall and, finally, William P. Rosso Highway
- 21 Mile / Auburn west of Shelby
- 22 Mile / Hamlin west of Shelby
- 23 Mile / Avon west of Dequindre
- 24 mile / Walton Blvd. west of Rochester

We could go on and on, as the mile roads continue north into the growing region, but we'll let you discover those for yourself.

THE MICHIGAN LEFT

DRIVING DISTANCES

Average Driving Distance to Downtown (in miles)

The five districts of metro Detroit are:

TRANSPORTATION

DRIVE IN, DRIVE OUT

Metro Detroit's freeway system is considered one of the most efficient in the country, making it easier to get around the area's nearly 2,000-plus square miles.

Many hotels provide shuttles to and from Detroit Metro Airport, as well as to area attractions, convention spaces and stadiums for major events. A large directory of the most familiar car rental services can also be found.

The Detroit People Mover, an elevated, automated light-rail system, loops downtown's central business district with 13 stations at critical points of interest, including Cobo Center, the GM Renaissance Center and the concentrated entertainment area known as Greektown. In spring 2017, the QLine will also be operational. The 3.3-mile circulating streetcar will run along Woodward Avenue with 20 stations serving 12 downtown stops.

TAXI RATES

Here are approximate rates for getting to and from major A and B destinations. Rates vary depending on wait times, traffic and the number of people traveling. Typically, traveling around 20 miles in good traffic costs around $50 one way.

From Detroit Metro Airport to:

COBO CENTER: $45***

DEARBORN: $35***

NOVI: $52***

MOUNT CLEMENS: $79***

**2017 Detroit Metro Airport Transportation*

SHUTTLES / SEDANS

Metro Detroit has plenty of shuttle/sedan services. Typical hourly rate is around $55* for local travel only, and there's usually a minimum two-hour rental. Related parking fees, tolls and gratuities not included.

BEYOND DETROIT

Metro Detroit is a final destination of many visitors to Michigan. The state, however, is blanketed with cities, communities and recreational wonders with much to offer guests of varying tastes and interests.

MICHIGAN

Michigan has a Lower and Upper Peninsula. In both, you'll find pastoral farmlands and rich forests, modern big cities and all-American small towns, and abundant lakes, rivers and beautiful beaches.

One of the state's biggest draws is the Great Lakes. Bounded by four of the five waters (Lakes Erie, Huron, Michigan and Superior), Michigan is hugged by veritable mini freshwater oceans teeming with fish, wildlife and accessible natural sandy coastlines. Mighty freighters often slowly roll past, hauling grains, iron ore and other resources to and from the Midwest region. And cities all throughout the state happily oblige and support the vibrant water and boating culture for natives as well as out-of-towners.

Visit the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore tucked away in the northwest corner of the Lower Peninsula. It's been dubbed the most beautiful place in America by the national news show Good Morning America. Or take in Grand Haven's beach on the eastern shore of Lake Michigan, one of CNN Travel's must-see beaches in the U.S. Stroll through the quaint downtowns of Holland or Frankenmuth, Michigan's own Little Bavaria. Don't miss the Cherry Festival every summer in Traverse City or the downhill skiing in winter at more than 40 ski resorts across the state. Travel the Mackinac Bridge and discover the Upper Peninsula, a world unto itself, full of bountiful, unspoiled natural beauty and unique downhome communities. Be sure to see the Soo Locks in Sault Ste. Marie, often referred to as one of the great wonders of the world — still the largest waterway traffic system on Earth. Experience favorite vacation spot, Mackinac Island, where bikes and horses are the only allowed modes of transportation to this day.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore boasts 64 miles of beach on Lake Michigan.

Michigan has more than 11,000 inland lakes and 36,000 miles of rivers and streams.

ANN ARBOR

Ann Arbor is less than an hour from downtown Detroit. The home of the prestigious University of Michigan, the city is the quintessential college town — youthful, hip and edgy — yet it is steeped in the tradition of an educational institution born in the early 1800s.

Notably, Ann Arbor has three downtown districts, including Main Street, State Street and South University. At any time of day, you can stroll down the sidewalks and find a variety of one-of-a-kind shops and restaurants. Ann Arbor also has a large concentration of theaters and bars, some with international reputations, which play host to a diverse mix of artists. The lively and abundant entertainment scene is matched only by the city’s cultural markers, including museums of modern art, natural history and archeology. And in July, the streets become an outdoor gallery for art lovers of all types as Ann Arbor’s massive multiday art fair literally covers much of the city.

The university campus, a destination in itself, is made up of a complex web of historic buildings and green spaces. Come fall and winter, the school goes ablaze in maize and blue as the Wolverines take to the football field at the Big House (aka Michigan Stadium), the basketball court at Crisler Center and the ice at Yost Ice Arena.

WINDSOR, ONTARIO, CANADA

Detroit and Windsor, Ontario, are sister cities and cosmopolitan complements. Facing each other from opposite banks of the Detroit River — the world’s busiest inland waterway — the two towns engage in an easy exchange of international commerce and culture.

With a population of more than 300,000, Windsor, like Detroit, shines with historic and cultural vitality as well as many entertainment options. Reaume Park and Coventry Gardens feature North America’s largest floating fountain, while Jackson Park boasts more than 12,000 beautiful rose bushes. Other Windsor jewels include the Hiram Walker Historical Museum, Willistead Manor, the Art Gallery of Windsor and Caesars Windsor casino hotel with its on-site theater, The Colosseum.

A bustling multicultural town with great shopping, restaurants and outdoor cafes, Windsor holds special significance in the story of African-Americans. Serving as the final stop on the Underground Railroad for escaped slaves, Windsor commemorates its historical participation at sites throughout the city, including the John Freeman Walls Historic Site and Underground Railroad Museum.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Ark on Ann Arbor’s Main Street is one of North America’s oldest nonprofit acoustic music clubs preserving American folk and bluegrass.

Rocker Bob Seger grew up in Ann Arbor and sings about one of the city’s thoroughfares in his hit song Mainstreet.

Back-and-forth access between Detroit and Windsor can be made via the Ambassador Bridge or the Detroit-Windsor Tunnel.

If you are a U.S. citizen, you will need one of the following identification documents to return to the U.S. from Windsor: U.S. passport book, U.S. passport card, enhanced driver’s license or a Trusted Traveler Program card such as NEXUS, SENTRI or FAST.
